3. The Future of Parking

The future of parking in Newcastle city centre is SMART. As part of the Hunter Innovation Project, we are working toward the development of Smart Parking which works by combining cameras, sensors, smartphone apps and WiFi infrastructure to provide, send and receive information between parking spaces and smartphones.

Smart parking will enable residents and visitors to locate vacant car parks in the city centre through an app on their phone. The app will allow you to see available parking spots and pay for parking from your phone, receive a notification before your car parking time is up and extend your parking time. This will reduce your travel time, the time it takes to find a car park and congestion on Newcastle roads.
